

Tuesday, Jan. 29, 2019

Kelly Twigger
ESI Attorneys & eDiscovery Assistant

10:30-10:50am

Five Most Significant eDiscovery Cases of 2018: Their Impact on 2019 and Beyond

Kelly, along with Doug Austin of CloudNine, will present the five most notable cases of 2018 and what they mean to legal professionals in 2019 and beyond.

Janice Jaco
Keesal, Young & Logan

10:50-11:10am

Amy Sellars
Walmart

2019 State of the eDiscovery Union Address: Issues Facing Large Law Departments and Strategies for Law Firms' Response

Amy and Janice will discuss drivers influencing eDiscovery including rebooting justice, eDiscovery Liaisons and rising accountability toward the discovery spend.

Craig Ball
Craig Ball, P.C

2:00-2:20pm

Mobile to the Mainstream: Best Practices for Meeting Today's Mobile Device Discovery Challenges

Craig discusses why mobile evidence matters and ways to efficiently integrate it into electronic discovery.

Mike Quartararo
eDPM Advisory Services

2:20-2:40pm

Recent eDiscovery Disasters and How to Avoid Them: Don't Let This Happen to You!

Mike, along with Doug Austin of CloudNine, explores common eDiscovery failures noted in high-profile cases and how to avoid them in your own cases.

Doug Austin
CloudNine

3:30-3:50pm

Discovery Isn't Just for Litigation Anymore: Why Waiting Until the Case is Filed May Now be Too Late

In today's era of #MeToo and concerns with GDPR data privacy, Doug explores the challenge and benefits to organizations to manage data proactively before litigation.

Wednesday, Jan. 30, 2019

Trent Livingston
ESI Analyst

9:40-10:00am

Connecting the Dots in Investigations: Empowering your ESI Technology Investment with Metadata Analysis

Trent examines the future of eDiscovery and investigations through the revolutionary lens of modern software to leverage traditional data sources and manage ESI with greater speed and cost efficiency.

Brandon Law
Oasis Discovery

10:00-10:20am

eDiscovery Today from a Service Provider Point of View

Brandon will discuss the effects of intense consolidation, increased security and privacy concerns, & competitive pricing pressures forcing service providers to rapidly adapt their business strategy.

Mary Mack
ACEDS

2:30-2:50pm

Bold eDiscovery Predictions for 2019: What to Expect and How to Prepare

Mary and Doug Austin of CloudNine will discuss emerging eDiscovery challenges, how they affect your organization, and how to address them.

Tom O'Connor
Gulf Coast Legal Technology Center

2:50-3:10pm

The State of eDiscovery Education Today: The Good, the Bad and the Ugly

Tom and Doug Austin of CloudNine will examine the good, the bad and the ugly with regard to the state of eDiscovery technology education in the legal profession today.